

Vacancy Notice

Legal-Policy Officer (TA/AD 7) – 1 position

Ref. ENISA-TA59-AD-2019-10

The EU Cybersecurity Agency (ENISA) welcomes applications from highly motivated candidates to contribute to the development of the Agency.

Please send us your applications by no later than 24/07/2019 at 16:00 (Greece local time).

As part of the process a reserve list will be formed that will also be used to identify candidates for any positions that may arise from the existing pool of positions.

1. The Agency

The Agency is a centre of expertise for cybersecurity in Europe.

Since it was set up in 2004¹, ENISA has been actively contributing to a high level of network and information security (NIS) within the Union, to the development of a culture of NIS in society and in order to raise awareness of NIS, thus contributing to proper functioning of the internal market.

ENISA focuses on five main areas:

- Collecting and analysing data on security incidents and emerging risks in Europe;
- Assisting and advising the Commission and the Member States in their dialogue with industry to address security related problems and, when called upon, in the technical preparatory work for updating and developing Community legislation in the field of network and information security;
- Promoting best practices, risk assessment and risk management, training and awareness raising actions;
- Encouraging co-operation between different actors, developing and maintaining contact with institutions, the business community and consumer organisations, notably through public/private partnerships;
- Tracking the development of standards for products and services in the field of network and information security and promoting their use.

In addition, as proposed in 2017 with a view to building strong cybersecurity in the EU, the adopted Cybersecurity Act includes:

- A permanent mandate and strengthen role for the EU Cybersecurity Agency, ENISA;
- A stronger basis for ENISA in the EU cybersecurity certification framework to assist Member States in effectively responding to cyber-attacks with a greater role in cooperation and coordination at Union level.

¹ Regulation (EU) No 2019/881 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 17 April 2019, repealing Regulation (EC) No 526/2013 (OJ L 165, 18.6.2013, 21.05.2013).

ENISA is located in Athens and in Heraklion, Crete, Greece.

The place of employment for the Legal-Policy Officer position is Athens. The position will be located in the Core Operations Department of ENISA.

ENISA's staff are expected to be reasonably mobile in order to respond to the needs of the Member States on the basis of planned as well as ad hoc needs.

Further information about ENISA may be found on our website: <https://www.enisa.europa.eu/>

2. Job description

The jobholder will be responsible for the following tasks:

- Ensure the proper interpretation and implementation of all primary and secondary legislation, guidelines and internal rules applicable or pertaining to ENISA's Core Operations Department activities.
- Provide oral and written advice on policy issues relating to ENISA's functions.
- Draft decisions, briefs, reports and correspondence on any legal and policy issue referred for consideration as well as present/explain legal and policy opinions at internal meetings and where appropriate, events and conferences.
- Monitor and analyse developments of European Union case law impacting on the operations of ENISA as well as relevant legislative policy developments associations with the Core Operations Department.
- Assist in the drafting, proof reading of deliverables and opinion papers in relation to the activities of the Core Operations Department.
- Support the Legal Officer in handling requests for public access to ENISA documents after joint processing with the business owner;
- Assist in the drafting of defences in legal proceedings involving or relating to ENISA's Core Operations Department.
- Provide expertise and support in the preparation, publication, opening and evaluation of procurement procedures, contracts, etc.
- Contribute to the work of the Council working groups dealing with operational issues of the Agency.
- Support the Legal Officer in dealing with the inter-agency legal cooperation Network of EU Agencies and appropriate consultation with external resources, such as external lawyers and officers in European Union Institutions and Member States.
- Take on additional responsibilities as required in the interest of the service.

3. Qualifications and experience required²

3.1. Eligibility Criteria

- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma³ when the normal period of university education is four years or more; or
- A level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma and appropriate professional experience of at least one year when the normal period of university education is at least three years;
- In addition to the above, at least 6 years of proven full-time professional experience⁴ relevant to the duties concerned after the award of the university degree;
- Thorough knowledge of one of the official languages of the European Union and a satisfactory knowledge of another official European language⁵.

In addition, in order to be eligible a candidate must:

- Be a national of one of the Member States of the European Union;
- Be entitled to his/her full rights as a citizen⁶;

- Ability to work effectively and inclusively with a range of internal and external stakeholders.

Low Scoring Criteria (2 points per criterion)

- Knowledge of legal and policy aspects related to ENISA activities (network and information security).
- Experience in a multicultural environment, preferably in an EU Institution, agency, body.

IMPORTANT:

All high scoring and low scoring criteria are evaluated in order to identify the candidates to be invited for an interview and written test. The top candidates (number of the shortlisted candidates scoring above the threshold to be set by the selection board) will be invited for an interview and written test. Therefore, candidates are recommended to give evidence of their knowledge by specific examples and/or detailed professional experience in the application form in order to be evaluated in the best possible way. To that purpose candidates are requested to be as detailed and as clear as possible in the description of their professional experience and specific skills and competencies.

4. Selection procedure

The selected candidate will be appointed to a position according to the needs of the Agency, on the basis of the reserve list of candidates, proposed by the Selection Board and established following an open selection process involving interviews and written tests.

More specifically, the Selection Board decides on those candidates who are admitted to the selection procedure in accordance with the requirements as specified in the vacancy notice. The applications of the candidates admitted to the selection procedure are reviewed and the Selection Board decides on those candidates who are invited to attend an interview. The Selection Board adheres strictly to the conditions of admission laid down in the vacancy notice when deciding whether or not candidates are to be admitted. Candidates admitted to a previous selection procedure will not automatically be eligible. Should the Selection Board discover at any stage in the procedure that the candidate does not meet one or more of the general or special conditions for admission to the selection procedure or that the information on the application form does not correspond with the supporting documents, the candidate will be disqualified.

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to undergo a written test of which the candidates will be informed in advance. In addition, all shortlisted candidates might be requested to complete an online personality test. Shortlisted candidates will be required to submit electronically relevant supporting documentation demonstrating their educational qualifications and work experience. It is envisaged that the interviews and written test will take place in August 2019. The date might be modified depending on the availability of the Selection Board members. Shortlisted candidates may also be required to provide work-related references upon request of the Agency. The activity of the Selection Board ends with the drawing of a reserve list of suitable applicants to occupy the position advertised. Candidates should note that inclusion on the reserve list does not guarantee recruitment.

The reserve list will be valid until 31/12/2020 and may be extended by decision of the Appointing Authority for a further 12 months. This list may be used to recruit Staff for other positions in the areas referred to in this vacancy.

Candidates invited to an interview will be informed by e-mail whether or not he/she has been placed on the reserve list. Candidates on the reserve list will be asked to fill a specific form informing the Appointing Authority of any actual or potential conflict of interest⁸. If a letter of intention is issued, the candidate must undergo a compulsory medical examination to establish that he/she meets the standard of physical fitness necessary to perform the duties involved and the candidate must provide original or certified copies of all relevant documents.

In line with the European Ombudsman's recommendation, ENISA publishes the names of the Selection Board on its website once established. It is strictly forbidden for the candidates to make any contact with the Selection Board, either directly or indirectly. Any infringement to this rule will disqualify the candidate from the competition.

All enquiries or requests for information in relation to the competition, including details about candidates' results⁹ should be addressed to the following email address recruitment@enisa.europa.eu

5. Conditions of Employment
